Tasting Note

With subtle wild flower and mineral aromas and an attractive, pale straw colour, this delicately oaked Pouilly Fuissé has a wonderfully understated palate with great texture and delineation and textbook orchard fruit and wet pebble nuances.

Serve

Smoked fish, poultry and white fish in sauces

Cellarage

Approachable from bottling, this will cellar well for 3-5+ years

Vinification

History

Stéphane Brocard is a branché thirty-something Chablisien who found his family's wine business becoming crowded when working alongside his brother and sister-in-law and sister and brother-in-law. An intimate knowledge of Burgundy and a hankering to do his own thing led him to set up a boutique négociant business contracting in small parcels of carefully selected grapes, as well as investing in a precious plot of Pommard, for which he has high aspirations.
